

A Thought...

This past week we celebrated the First Confession of the boys and girls from the CBS Primary and Presentation Primary schools. It was a wonderful occasion for them and their families. We congratulate them on this next step of entry into the community of faith that is our parish. It occurs to me that in confessing the children all said, and we say ourselves when we go to Confession, "I did not show love when..." Isn't it a nice thought that not showing love in any situation is a sin... After all the greatest commandment given us by the Lord is to love. Let us all try to love more this week - ourselves and others.
